MEDICINAL.

When a woman gives up it is because she has gone to the utmost limit of strength and endurance. It is a marvel how women will stagger on under the daily household burdens when the whole body is racked with pain.

For the nervous, run-down condition which so many women experience, as a result of overstrain in household cares, there is no medicine can equal Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It strengthens the weak stomach by curing diseases of the organs of digestion and nutrition. It purifies the blood of poisons which cause rheumatism and other painful diseases. It nourishes the nerves, and builds up the body with sound, healthy flesh.

There is no alcohol in "Golden Medical Discovery" and it is entirely free from opium, cocaine and all other narcotics.

Accept no substitute for the "Discovery." There is nothing "just as good" for weakness, nervousness and debility.

"I want the whole world to know what Dr. Pierce's medicine has done for me," writes Mrs. Helen Hardgrove, of Bangs, Knox Co., O. "I had many of the ills of woman's life. My lungs and throat troubled me besides, and I had rheumatism. About a year ago I had to give up work I was so bad. I had heard so much about your medicine I thought I would try it. I took four bottles of your 'Golden Medical Discovery' and 'Pelle's' and by the time I had taken half of the first bottle I began to gain, and kept on getting better. And now I have no more of my old ailments and am entirely cured of rheumatism. I feel like a new woman."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the book, in paper covers, or 11 stamps for cloth binding. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Accidents

Sprains and Bruises
Burns and Scalds Cuts and Wounds

Accidents happen every day. Why not be prepared? A household supplied with need have no fear of the ordinary ailments and mishaps of mankind. Hamlin's Wizard Oil is a safeguard for children, a comfort to parents, a boon to the old folks. It will pay to keep the old-time, reliable family medicine always on hand in case of need.

John Smith, Starbuck, Minn., writes April 15, 1901: "I have been in bed for four weeks with a Sprained Back, caused by too heavy lifting. I have tried almost everything to cure it. Seeing what Hamlin's Wizard Oil had done for others I tried a bottle and in two days I was able to work."

W. L. Steele, Santa Barbara, Cal., writes: "My child fell from a high chair upon a hot stove and burned his forehead and side of face severely. I suffered intensely for three days, when we commenced using Hamlin's Wizard Oil. The pain was relieved in twenty minutes and the burns healed in about five days."

There is only one Wizard Oil—Hamlin's—name blown in the bottle. Signature "Hamlin Bros." on wrapper. Take no substitute. 50c. and $1.00.

SUICIDES IN NEW YORK.

Heartick because his wife turned resolutely from the offers for reconciliation with herself and his little children, wealthy Leo C. Jakobi shot himself to death in New York. For the last eight weeks he had lived with Dr. Lordly, his family physician. Partly dressing yesterday he stood in front of a pier glass in his room on the second floor, pressed a revolver against his right temple and shot himself. He fell into a chair. The shot brought Dr. Lordly to the room. Plainly the man was dying. As the physician held his head Mr. Jakobi's lips moved. The only murmur audible that came from them was: "My wife—my wife—my little ones." In 10 minutes he was dead. Mr. Jakobi was connected with the Otto Motor Company and was New York agent for a big western automobile concern. His fortune is estimated at about $150,000. A friend of the family said: "I cannot go into the details of Mr. Jakobi's separation from his wife, but undoubtedly her refusal to forgive him, her refusal to hold out to him the highest hope, drove him out of his mind. The man was simply crazed for a sight of her and his children—crazed to hear the sound of their voices again."

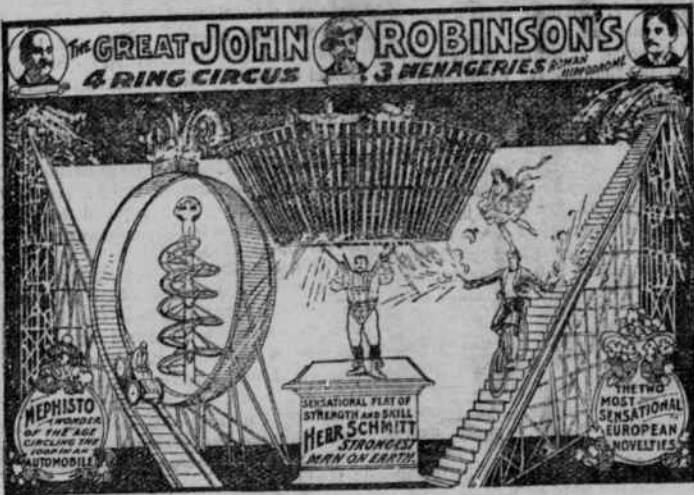

Thomas W. Monroe, 50 years old, secretary of the Albertson-Clarke Hardware Company, of New York, committed suicide at his home in Brooklyn at 12:30 o'clock yesterday morning, by shooting himself in the head with a 38-caliber revolver. He left a note which, in addition to a list of his property, contained the statement that he was ill and believed his best course was to take his life. Monroe also informed his wife in the note that his life was insured for $5,000. According to his wife and business associates, Monroe had become despondent from worrying over business troubles which were purely imaginary. It is believed that his mind became unbalanced from overwork, and during the last few weeks his condition had been aggravated by the loss of sleep, the result of watching at the bedside of a daughter who was ill. Friends of the dead man said yesterday that his memory had failed of late.

KILLED BY ROWDIES.

Tardy amusement seekers at Coney Island witnessed a fatal assault early yesterday upon Herman Frishman, proprietor of a Surf avenue restaurant, followed by a bitter fight, in which his three assailants, all boilermakers, and 10 policemen took part. Only one of the rowdies, Joseph Loughlin, a boilermaker, of Brooklyn, was overpowered in the struggle. The other two, John Travis and William Zimmerman, fled with a mob at their heels, but were later arrested near their homes by the police. Loughlin has confessed to dealing the blow which crushed Frishman's skull. The assault occurred at 1:30 in the restaurant, which adjoins Luna Park. As Frishman was counting his receipts in the presence of a hundred people, in rushed Loughlin, Travis and Zimmerman, all of whom had been drinking. Seizing a dozen glass bowls filled with crushed fruits for the soda fountain they proceeded to throw them all about the place. When the proprietor remonstrated Loughlin struck him a blow on the head with a glass decanter. As he fell before the terrified spectators the assailants rushed into the street. Several hundred people were soon in pursuit and finally cornered them. Detectives Conlon and Glynn had soon arrived with eight policemen. The drunken men refused to give in, and fought the policemen as fiercely as they had the mob. Loughlin was finally knocked senseless, but the other two men ran, with the police and crowd in pursuit. Though Travis and Zimmerman eluded their pursuers, they were arrested two hours later in Brooklyn. At 8 o'clock Dr. Madison and Parker, of Kings county Hospital, trepanned the injured man's skull, after Drs. Hall, Marsh, Pierce and Beck had given up hope, but he died soon afterward. Frishman's father died only four months ago, leaving him a large restaurant and bakery business. The victim was 45 years old. He was a member of many Coney Island clubs.

Battle with a Cat.

In a terrific battle with an infuriated cat which attacked him in Philadelphia yesterday P. T. Glendenning, 50 years old, a wealthy resident of Mount Vernon, N. Y., was terribly bitten and clawed. Tortured with the pain of the animal's teeth and claws in his arm, he fought desperately to shake or drive it off and was aided by a friend, T. M. Hardt, of New York. Their combined efforts could not force the cat to release its hold for at least two minutes, during which it made a dozen bites and many scratches on the arms and face. Within an hour the injured arm had swollen to twice its natural proportions and looked as if it had been infected with poisonous saliva. Mr. Glendenning was standing at Ninth and Chestnut streets and stooped to pet a black and white feline which rubbed against his leg. As he rose he stepped on the cat's foot and it sprang at him ferociously. She made direct for his throat, but his arm intervened. The cat then sank her teeth into his arm. Glendenning dashed his feline assailant against the wall with great force, but without effect. His companion and others ran to his assistance. Finally the cat jumped down and disappeared.

Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver

Tablets Better than a Doctor's Prescription.

Mr. J. W. Turner, of Truhart, Va., says that Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets have done him more good than anything he could get from the doctor. If any physician in this country was able to compound a medicine that would produce such gratifying results in cases of stomach troubles, biliousness or constipation, his whole time would be used in preparing this one medicine.
